

All-in rail & sea tickets Cahir to Britain via Dublin – Holyhead:

How does it work? An all-in ticket, called a SailRail ticket, is available and includes the trio of travel from Cahir railway station to Dublin Heuston, the ferry crossing and onward rail travel from Holyhead to one's destination station in Britain.

What are the fares? A selection of current adult single fares are:

- Cahir to Bangor/ Llandudno/ Rhyl/ Wrexham: €55
- Cahir to Chester/ Liverpool/ Manchester: €56
- Cahir to Birmingham/ Leeds/ Blackpool: €57
- Cahir to Scarborough/ Oxford/ Cambridge/ Lincoln/ Hull/ Carlisle: €59
- Cahir to London/ Harwich/ Newcastle/ Glasgow: €62

Notes: it is possible to buy a ticket to any station on the National Rail network, only some of the main stations are listed above. A supplement of €6 applies to the Irish Ferries fast ferry. Tickets bought on the date of travel are €6 dearer than the prices shown. Return fares are double the single fare. Child fare is half of the adult fare and applies to ages 5 to 15 inclusive. Children under 5: free.

What are the benefits of travelling by sea and rail?

- * Fixed good value fares. * No travel tax.
- * Luggage: as a rule of thumb one can bring whatever luggage one can reasonably manage.
- * Relaxing. * Lots of scenery along the way. * Option to bring a bicycle.
- * Productive use of travel time – relax/dine/work; free Wi-Fi onboard Irish Rail & ships. Wi-fi also available on some trains in Britain. * Wide range of facilities onboard ship & catering on most trains.
